Create Your Finals Game Plan

November 17th at 7pm

November 30th at 6pm

Create your Finals Game Plan allows you to reflect on the semester and determine what you need for a successful finals week. During this session you will explore learning activities and study strategies, highlight different scheduling methods, and create your game plan!

Remember to check your final exam schedule under the Academics tab on myPurdue. Go to "Evening and Final Exams". If you have more than two final exams on one calendar day, you are entitled to reschedule any exams in excess of 2 (per university regulations). Similarly, if you have a direct exam conflict you are entitled to reschedule either exam. It is the responsibility of the student to make necessary arrangements with the instructor for rescheduling their individual exam before the last week of regularly scheduled classes.

"Study Abroad was an amazing and unforgettable experience. I had the opportunity to live in a completely different culture and experience a whole different lifestyle in Barcelona, Spain during my 4 weeks. I was able to see many important places in Barcelona such as La Sagrada Familia and become familiar with a city and culture I had never experienced before. I was also able to travel throughout Europe with my fellow Purdue classmates. The experience was one I will truly never forget."

FEATURED MINOR: REAL ESTATE FINANCE

Real estate finance is a dynamic, growing field that touches on nearly every aspect of business and management. For example, research indicates that more than 25 percent of corporate assets are invested in real estate, and real estate-related costs could account for 5-8 percent of total gross sales. Likewise, real estate management can greatly affect an organization's performance in terms of employee satisfaction, production, service, flexibility, and resilience in handling disruptions. It is also common for real estate decisions to involve engineering, technical, and social issues. At the same time, the real estate field is increasingly challenged by its focus on sustainability, energy efficiency, and environmentally-friendly facilities and operations.

The Dean V. White Real Estate Finance Program at Purdue Krannert School of Management addresses these and other challenges with designated faculty, specialized minors and coursework, experiential learning, and research strengths in economics, finance, accounting, and related fields.

Targeting the growing demand for talent within the rapidly evolving real estate industry, the program provides an academic experience for students that equips them to plan, develop and manage successful commercial real estate projects. High-impact experiential learning opportunities – a key component of Purdue's Next Moves: Transformative Education 2.0 – connect students with real estate experts and prepare them for industry-leading positions and careers.

Need assistance making changes to your Spring 2023 schedule?

CHECK OUT RESOURCES FOR VETERAN SUCCESS

The mission of the Veterans Success Center is to provide a comprehensive suite of wrap-around support services for Purdue University students who are veterans, members of the military, or benefit-using family members.

They have student and staff space located in the Purdue Memorial Union, allowing students a convenient location to receive guidance about and access to military-related education benefits, opportunities for personal and professional development, and camaraderie with their peers.

Please reach out to dogtags@purdue.edu or call 765-494-7638 to get connected. You can also check out their website for more information.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT RESOURCES

As the semester begins to slow down, many students begin to plan for how they will use winter break to get ahead. Preparing for the Spring career fair, updating your LinkedIn and/or resume, or conducting informational interviews are all great ways to develop your professional self during the winter months. As a Krannert student, you have access to the Krannert Professional Development Center \(KPDC\). If you'd like assistance with your career development, schedule an appointment with a career coach through BoilerConnect or reach out to KPDC at krannertcareers@purdue.edu.

Peer Consultants are also available for drop-in questions every weekday but Thursday from 11 am - 3 pm. KPDC is located on the third floor of Rawls Hall.
